RULES FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE 2011 AUBURN CHRISTMAS PARADE

Saturday, December 10, 2011

Parade Begins at 10:00 a.m.

For safety reasons, candy and/or novelties WILL NOT be allowed to be thrown during the parade except by the Christmas parade's Santa Claus.

1. Each float, vehicle, or group must be decorated in a Christmas theme. Please do not have anyone dressed as Santa Claus. Multiple Santas are confusing to small children.
2. Each entry will be limited to one float or two vehicles or one vehicle and one walking group.
3. Each entry must furnish its own car, truck, float and signs.
4. Family pets will be permitted to walk with owners, but all animals must be leashed. Owners are responsible for cleaning up after pets.
5. Horses with riders will not be allowed to participate. ONLY horses pulling carts or buggies will be allowed. This MUST be approved by the parade committee.
6. Radio stations and/or participants playing music must play Christmas music and decorate with a Christmas theme.
7. Chaperons or group leaders must be responsible for all members on each float. Arrangements must be made with parents for dropping off and picking up children.
8. Line-up will be facing East on Thach and facing North on Mell Street from Roosevelt to College Street. All vehicles should enter Mell Street from Roosevelt. Entry participants walking or riding in vehicles and/or floats should enter and/or be dropped off at the Main entrance of the Auburn University R.D. Draughton Library between 9:00 – 9:30 a.m. Volunteers will direct and assist participants to their assigned line-up number.
9. Children under 10 years old MUST ride on a float.
10. The parade will end on Thach Avenue and Mell in the same location that it started.

ALL RULES WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED BY THE CHRISTMAS PARADE COMMITTEE.

Please review and inform the other participants in your group of the parade rules. The committee appreciates your cooperation. If you have any questions, please contact any Auburn Chamber staff member at (334) 887-7011.
